

Article (43)

The Stock Exchange shall keep the following:

- A. Its own accounting books and records, in accordance with adopted accounting standards.
- B. The books and records required for the conduct of its business, in accordance with its regulations and directives.