

The Amman Stock Exchange holds a lecture in the Amman Arab University

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE), in cooperation with the Department of Finance and Banking at the College of Business at Amman Arab University, held a lecture entitled “Amman Stock Exchange (Latest Developments and Achievements)” in the presence of the Deputy Dean of the College, Prof. Dr. Ismail Yamin and Dr. Mahmoud Abu Sharia from the Department of Banking and Finance and a number of faculty and administrative staff members and university students. Holding such lectures comes within the framework of the ASE policy to deepen its relationship with universities, and to enhance knowledge and investment in securities.

Where Dr. Rasha Dayat, Director of the Planning and Institutional Development Department at the ASE, reviewed the most important developments, achievements and future plans of the ASE. Dr. Diat said that ASE has developed a strategic plan that includes many projects and programs with the aim of developing legislative and technical frameworks in accordance with the latest international standards and practices in a way that enhances the investment climate and increases the exchange attractiveness to local and foreign investments, and among these projects: Strengthening the investment environment, and the legislative and technical environment of the exchange. Enhancing the presence of the stock exchange at the regional and international levels, developing investment awareness of securities, and achieving institutional excellence.

At the end of the meeting, Dr. Diat answers students' questions and inquiries about everything related to the institutions of the Jordanian capital market in general and the Amman Stock Exchange in particular. The university presented Dr. Diat with a certificate of appreciation for the information she provided during the workshop

